Verity Symphony ES Software– (4S Series) version 4.1.7 (Prudence release) notes (July 8-2019)

Verity Symphony ES software allows teams to use the power of software to run an efficient, flexible , safe supply chain all through the cloud; With Verity Symphony we can now co-ordinate inspections, repair and facilitate work orders to resolve incidents for almost any kind of use case – altogether managing risk and delivering value; assuring that we are providing the highest levels of service quality; Verity Symphony is applicable to several areas including commercial real estate, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, energy, insurance, hotels and hospitality

Omon Edeki, SOA implementation consultant, issued a brief statement "This release marks our continued commitment, determination and resolve to deliver the highest levels excellence in the supply chain risk management software space, we believe that our customers and partners will be very pleased with the solution as it is very cost effective, easy to implement and solves many pressing challenges"

Luis Restrepo, Services Delivery Manager, issued a brief statement, "Verity 4S Software new release is bringing better performance and faster processing for your company needs. This release will get information faster and accurate in all worksites"

- Release includes several minor usability improvements, and minor bug fixes
- Requested changes to make use of the software easier, including improvements to allow easier navigation, multisite navigation and multisite support
- General improvements to support multi view resolutions and optimized for readability and usability
- Server software: Search database grid view by multiple parameters to meet customer needs
- Continued integration with financial applications, roles based access support for financial expense applications for field services and supply chain use cases
- Available for download now at: http://www.nowellgroup.com/92526/119637.html

#integrity #service #teamwork

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Phil 4:13

INTEGRITY ABOVE PROFITS